

Automated Contract Plastics Packaging, Storage & Shipping

HERMANN | Packaging

Whether you need plastics packaging, bulk trucking, or dry van freight shipping, leave it to Hermann Services. – That's our job.

Your Turnkey Plastics Handling Resource

Hermann Services offers automated contract packaging for the transfer of pelletized plastic resin from hopper car and bulk trucks into bags, boxes, super sacks, or bulk freight. Offering dedicated plastic packaging lines, we ensure against any possibility of product contamination.

Strategically located in central New Jersey, our facilities are serviced by the shared assets of Norfolk Southern and CSX railways.

On-site services include transloading from rail cars, expansive storage, and scales for rapid, accurate weight calculations. State-licensed personnel will issue official weight slips to ensure the accuracy and timeliness of all your bulk loads.

Our packaging division is supported by the Herman Services Transportation division to provide turnkey LTL, truckload, and resin bulk transportation services.
